Read the following passage and answer the questions:

I have a friend called Samy who always pretends to know everything. He lives in the same city where I live. Whenever a name is mentioned, he says he knows the person who owns that name. I have believed Samy until one day I found that he is a big liar. Once he visited me when I was sitting with my cousin Mr. Ibrahim, who happened to be a well-known writer. Before I introduce my friend to Mr. Ibrahim, his eyes fell on one of the books, which was lying on the table. Samy said at once that the author of the book was one of his relatives, and started telling about the adventures they had together.

He also said that Mr. Ibrahim never wrote a book before discussing its ideas with him. Mr. Ibrahim kept on listening with interest. He asked my friend Samy if he could recognize Mr. Ibrahim if he saw him. My friend assured him that he would. With a loud laugh, Mr. Ibrahim introduced himself to my friend who was so ashamed that he quickly left the house. Since then, my friend does his best to avoid me at any place.
